

Arsenal Closed To Duck Hunters

Civilians who want to go duck hunting in the Joliet area will have to find new hunting grounds in many instances.

Scores of hunters who have been issue passes in years gone by to get inside the Joliet Arsenal grounds for duck hunting were advised yesterday that no civilian permits will be issued this year.

According to Col. R. C. Costabile, commanding officer, the increased activity at the Arsenal does not make it feasible to have hunters inside the grounds.

The duck hunting season opens Friday.
